PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Family Readiness

Brief

1st Lt Oneall

Public Affairs Officer

Staff Sgt. Pat Franklin

Media Relations Chief

PURPOSE OF THIS CLASS

- JPAO – Our mission
- JPAO – How we can help
- Your rights
- Handling the media
- Other services

JPAO MISSION

- to facilitate the flow of information about Marine Corps Air Station New River and tenant organizations of the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing located here to the public.
- to control media access to the installation.

HOW PAO CAN HELP

- Provide assistance regarding:
 - organized interviews
 - media house calls
 - information and guidance
- We can assist if you are being harassed by the media

MEDIA: YOUR RIGHTS

- You have the right:
 - Not to speak with the media
 - To speak with media on your own
 - To have PAO representation
 - To privacy

MEDIA: WHAT TO DO

- Basic, general info can be disclosed
- Avoid possible speculation of future events or tasking
- You can refer all media queries and contacts to the Joint Public Affairs Office New River
449-5432

BEFORE THE INTERVIEW

- Establish 'ground rules'
- Pre-interview discussion helps:
 - puts both parties at ease
 - helps determine reporter's knowledge
 - can determine reporter's agenda
- Re-establish topic

MEDIA DO'S

- Be positive
- Be aware of what you say and how it is said
- Be yourself

MEDIA DON'TS

- Don't say 'no comment'
- Don't answer 'what if' questions
- Don't be afraid to say, 'I don't know'
- Don't be too defensive or offensive
- Don't lose your temper

ON-CAMERA INTERVIEW TIPS

- Take your time, think about what you're about to say
- Answer one question at a time
- Talk to the interviewer, not the camera
- Everything is considered 'on the record'

Reporters want to tell your story

- Expect them at newsworthy events
- Consult your PAO
- The things you say to the media can help other families
- Be confident
